Federal Government Impact

1.) How much federal money received by the agency is tied to a mandate by the Federal Government?
 All Federal money is tied to mandates.

2.) Are any of those funds inadequate to pay for the federal mandate?
 Yes

3.) What would the consequences be of ending all of the federal funded programs for your agency?
 There would be an approximate 30% reduction in Domestic Abuse and Women and Children's shelter funding across the State of Oklahoma. The Attorney General's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit would be reduced by approximately 75% which would negatively impact the annual restitution amount distributed back to the General Revenue Fund

4.) How will your agency be affected by federal budget cuts in the coming fiscal year?
 We are unaware of any Federal budget cuts relating to our services.

5.) Has the agency requested any additional federal earmarks or increases?
 We have not requested any earmarks however we continue to apply for Federal grants as they are offered and increase additional funds as available.

Division and Program Descriptions

Administration
 Administration is primarily responsible for agency management and direction. Administration is responsible for setting the agency mission and goals.

Administration also houses the centralized functions of the agency essential to all units and sections. This would include finance, accounting, file clerks, receptionist, and senior management. Administration makes sure that the day to day needs, such as proper supplies and support of all staff are met so they may accomplish the goals set by their units/sections and by the agency as a whole. This program also establishes the direction the agency will go in reaching out to the citizens of Oklahoma. Administration plans on continuing the identification and implementation of new legal solutions to persistent problems. Also to look for innovative ways to maintain employee morale and improve work product.

Office of Federalism

The Federalism Unit of the Attorney General's Office defends the state of Oklahoma and its people in federal court against the unprecedented and ever-increasing overreach of the federal government. The Unit also represents Oklahoma in state court on a variety of issues such as the ongoing water litigation brought against the state by various Oklahoma Indian tribes, various challenges to workers' compensation reforms, challenges of the state income tax cut plan, challenges against the Lindsey Nicole Henry scholarship program, challenges of pro-life laws, among other litigation. The solicitor general leads the Federalism Unit and supervises appellate litigation on behalf of the Attorney General's Office.

Legal Services

The Legal Services Division consists of the Public Utility Unit, Civil Rights, General Counsel, Litigation, Criminal Appeals and Consumer Protection. The overall mission of the Legal Services Division is to provide the core statutory legal services to agencies and the citizens of the State of Oklahoma.

Public Utilities-The Attorney General's Public Utility Unit represents ratepayers in utility rate related matters in all state or federal proceedings in the areas of natural gas, electric power, and telecommunications.

Civil Rights-The Office of Civil Rights Enforcement was created by the State legislature to replace the Human Rights Commission and is the only state office with the authority to investigate and enforce the mandates of the Oklahoma Anti-Discrimination Act.

General Counsel-The General Counsel Unit provides legal advice and counsel to approximately 325 state officers, agencies, boards and commissions. On an ongoing basis, the unit provides advice and counsel to 125-150 of these entities. The section also prepares official Attorney General Opinions in response to questions of law from state officers, represents agencies and officers in administrative and civil actions (including appeals), reviews Inter-local agreements submitted pursuant to the Inter-local Cooperation Act, and reviews, (in the Attorney General's capacity as ex officio Bond Commissioner), approximately 150 bond issues annually for compliance with the laws of the State of Oklahoma.

Litigation-The Litigation Unit represents state agencies, officers and employees when they are sued in any civil action. The section also brings civil actions to recover monies wrongfully taken from the state, and it defends and intervenes in cases wherein a party challenges the constitutionality of the State Constitution and State Statutes.

Criminal Appeals-The Criminal Appeals Unit upholds the convictions of the guilty and ensures that the punishment imposed by judges and juries are carried out, provides quality responses that will aid the courts in ruling on issues of law and in the development of new legal precedents, provides training to judges and prosecutors to reduce errors made at trial, provides updates on legal issues through fielding inquiries, seminars and legal publications, represents the State's prison wardens by filing responses to petitions for writ of habeas corpus filed in federal courts by Oklahoma's prisoners; represents judges who are sued through writs of mandamus and prohibition, informs crime victims on the status of death penalty cases as they progress through the appellate process.

Consumer Protection- The mission of the Consumer Protection Unit is to protect consumers from fraudulent and unfair practices through law enforcement and education. The vision of the Consumer Protection Unit is to be a responsive cutting edge organization dedicated to protecting the public and solving community problems through the education of consumers, fair enforcement of consumer laws and cooperation and coordination with other law enforcement agencies. The Consumer Protection Unit enforces the Oklahoma Consumer Protection Act, the Home Repair Fraud Act, state and federal antitrust laws, and other consumer laws. The Unit administers Oklahoma's "Do Not Call" registry and program. The CPU provides educational programs and materials on consumer issues.

Tobacco Enforcement

Under the Master Settlement Agreement (MSA), that was entered into with major tobacco companies, Oklahoma is projected to receive an annual payment between $72,000,000 and $74,000,000. Oklahoma was required to enact a statute requiring non-participating manufacturers to fund an escrow statute based upon their sales within the state. If Oklahoma failed to enforce the provisions of that statute in any given year, it could lose a substantial portion of its annual payment. The companies that joined the Master Settlement Agreement filed an arbitration proceeding against Oklahoma and other states arguing that they failed to enforce their escrow statutes and caused them to suffer a market share loss. The arbitration panel ruled that in determining whether a state enforced its escrow statute it considered the collection rate of escrow owed; the reliability of data reported by tobacco manufacturers and distributors; resources allocated to enforcement of the escrow statute; lawsuits filed against non-compliant companies; prevention of future sales by non-compliant manufacturers and efforts to become aware of other states' enforcement efforts and legislation. Oklahoma settled potential arbitrations for years 2003 through 2013. As a result of that settlement, the state agreed to enhance its enforcement efforts. The Attorney General's Tobacco Enforcement Unit collects monthly cigarette sales reports from tobacco distributors; conducts audits, as necessary of those reports; conducts inspection of tobacco retailers for non-compliant cigarettes; reviews Pact Act reports submitted by Tobacco Product Manufacturers; reviews applications from Tobacco Product manufacturers to be listed on the Oklahoma Attorney General's Tobacco registry; files lawsuits against non-compliant manufacturers and brings actions against individuals selling contraband tobacco products. The goal of the Tobacco Enforcement Unit is to have all cigarette products correctly reported and escrow paid on all sales by non-participating manufacturers, to prevent Oklahoma from losing any part of its annual MSA payment.

Multi-County Grand Jury

The MCGJ Unit serves as legal advisor to the Multi-County Grand Jury, processes and assigns District Attorney Recusals Statewide, prosecutes special cases initiated within the unit, assists in special prosecutions with State District Attorneys and Attorney General investigations, is legal advisor for County Grand Juries where DA has been disqualified, investigates and acts upon Title 51 Citizen Complaints, and represents Medical Examiners in 751 hearings.

Medicaid Fraud

The MFCU has two missions: 1) Investigate and prosecute Medicaid provider fraud; 2) Investigate and prosecute abuse, neglect and financial exploitation in Oklahoma nursing facilities that receive Medicaid funds. With the implementation of the Affordable Care Act, Medicaid will become a larger program and will likely entail the increase of the unit. The MFCU recuperates and transfers between $1mm-$5mm annually to the General Fund.

Workers' Compensation

The Workers' Compensation Fraud Unit investigates and prosecutes cases of workers' compensation fraud in Oklahoma.

Insurance Fraud

The Insurance Fraud Unit investigates and prosecutes cases of insurance fraud in Oklahoma.

Victims' Services

The Victim Services Unit works to improve services for crime victims. The unit oversees funding and certification for domestic violence and sexual assault programs across the State. The unit also provides statewide and regional training for law enforcement officers, prosecutors, victim advocates, health care professionals, and various other service providers. The Victims Services Unit also provides appellate notification and advocacy to survivors and victim's families in death penalty cases.
